Upon arrival at Casablanca International Airport, you will be greeted and transferred to the hotel for check in. You are free to explore the city at your own leisure. Overnight in Casablanca.

Day 2 Casablanca - Rabat

B/D

After breakfast at the hotel and check out, you will be taken on a city tour of Casablanca. Start your tour with a shopping stop at the Central Market which is located at the Mohammed V Boulevard. This big market opens every day in the morning and is the perfect place to go for a walk and take a look at the typically Moroccan stands. You can find a little bit of everything from flowers to meat, fruit or spices, walking around the seafood and many more. Next, visit the Royal Palace of Casablanca, a masterpiece of Islamic architecture, surrounded by picturesque orange groves and elaborate water features. Continue the tour to the Mohamed V Square, Habbous district and residential area of Anfa. Then, proceed to the exterior of the great Hassan II Mosque. After that, proceed to Rabat, 90km (1 hour 10 minutes) from Casablanca. Upon arrival, discover the Royal Palace, home of his majesty King Mohamed VI, the merinid necropolis at Chellah, a historic site of Rabat. Explore Kasbah of the Udayas, one of Rabat's proudest features. The kasbah was built in the 12th century during the reign of the Almohad Caliphate. Next, visit the Hassan Tower, the minaret of an incomplete mosque in Rabat. When construction began in 1195, the tower was intended to be the largest minaret in the world along with the mosque. In 1199, Sultan Yacub al-Mansour died, construction on the mosque stopped, and never resumed. After that, visit Mohamed V Mausoleum which contains the tombs of the Moroccan king and his two sons, late King Hassan II and Prince Abdallah. In the evening, transfer to the hotel for check in and have dinner. Overnight in Rabat.

Day 3 Rabat - Meknes - Fez

B/D

After breakfast at the hotel and check out, you will be transferred to the second largest city in Morocco, Fez. Fez is located approximately 210km (2 hours 20 minutes) from Rabat city. En route, stop at the city of Meknes which known as the Moroccan Versailles which was founded towards the end of the 17th century by Moulay Ismail. Then, visit the Roman ruins of Volubilis. It is a partly excavated Berber and Roman city in Morocco situated near the city of Meknes, and commonly considered as the ancient capital of the kingdom of Mauretania. It was built in a fertile agricultural area and developed from the 3rd century BC onward as a Berber, then proto-Carthaginian settlement before being the capital of the kingdom of Mauretania. Today, it is a UNESCO World Heritage Site, listed for being an exceptionally well preserved example of a large Roman colonial town on the fringes of the Empire. Upon arrival in Fez, transfer to the hotel for check in and have dinner. Overnight in Fez.

Day 4 Fez

B/D

After breakfast at the hotel, you will be taken on a Fez city tour of Fez. Fez is well-known for its labyrinth of souks, mosques and spice filled streets. Visit one of the main attractions of Fez, the Mausoleum of Moulay Idriss. He left Damascus and fled to Morocco in 787. He arrived in Volubilis that was the center of the north, then started to build his city that was later named Moulay Idriss. Also, he constructed the city of Fez and converted the local Berber people to Islam. Today his tomb is the object of pilgrimage where the influx of visitors intensifies especially during the moussem, an important festival that is held every year in the second week of August. Then, proceed to the famous Nejjarine Fountain, a beautiful and historic public fountain in Fez. The first fountain down from Bab Boujeloud, it seems a miniature version of the Nejjarine fondouk.
